

PRIOR to Hyperhidrosis Injections

- Let your Nurse know of any changes in your Medical Condition/ Medication/ Supplements
- Do not wear deodorant on the day of treatment

POST Hyperhidrosis Injections

- Your skin may show redness and swelling at the injection site for 24 hours post treatment
- You may feel tender in the area for 24 hours
- You may see visible small raised lumps in the area for 48 hours post treatment
- Avoid rubbing or applying any creams/deodorants to the area for 24 hours
- Bruising at the injection site can be a common side effect of this treatment
- Do not apply pressure to treatment area for a few days
- Avoid heat, hot tubs, saunas, etc. for 24 hours
- You cannot massage in the area for 2 weeks after this treatment
- It can take up to 2 weeks for the full effect to be noticed
- We advise you to return for another appointment as soon as the sweating returns